

THE MORNING APPEAL.

FRIDAY.....JANUARY 8

Eastern advertising Agent 230-234 Temple Court Building New York City, E. Kratz agent.

GAME PEOPLE.

The Return by Mrs. Tom Watson of one and a half million in bonds and negotiable securities to her father, Mr. Clause Spreckles, is already the talk of the Coast.

Old Clause Spreckles is many times a millionaire, and a few years ago he gave his daughter Emma nearly two million dollars in bonds and securities. Not long ago she fell in love with Tom Watson, a grain broker and married him without her father's consent. He met her in the street, upbraided her, taunted her that Watson had married her for her money. Husband and wife had a short conference and before the day was over they had returned to Spreckles his million and a half.

The lady can now stand before the world as having been wooed and won for herself alone, which in itself is worth the amount she returned and Mr. Watson cannot be held up as a mercenary fortune hunter.

Both are game people and if old Spreckles don't some day return the money to his daughter with good interest he stands before the world as a childish old fellow with no milk of human kindness in him.

The football business has received a frightfully black eye in Mexico. The Texas and Missouri university eleven went down here and played a game and the Mexican press declares that the game is too brutal and rough to ever gain favor in Mexico. People that enjoy a bull fight, the killing of horses and men and bulls—we place the animals in their legitimate order—cannot stand football.

The constitutionality of the law limiting the period of labor in underground mines and mills and smelters to eight hours, will be passed upon by the Supreme Court of the United States, by Mr. Albert F. Holden having carried his case up to that august tribunal from the Supreme Court of the State of Utah, the latter having affirmed the constitutionality of the act of the legislature.

A recent partial ballot, by mail, of the Republican members of the New York Legislature as to their choice for Senator resulted as follows: Platt 44, Choate 1.

Ex-Governor Penoyer may be a better man than he has been leading people to believe he is. As mayor of Portland his salary is $2,500, and he recently drew his check in favor of a local charity organization for $1,250 to be used for benevolent purposes.

The London Truth says that a society should be formed for the restoration of the original Christmas, which it insists Charles Dickens destroyed, substituting therefore a most composed of fat squires, fat page boys, pretty house maids, obsequious poor relations and other grotesque creations.

Several young men in California who were anxious to shine as legislature attachés got jobs at $4 a day as porters. They like the salary, but shrink from the duties. It is now proposed to give them colored assistants at $3, who will remove the tobacco quills from the en-pipeurs.

The Secretary of the Treasury has awarded the contract for building a vessel for light-house service to Wolf & Zwickler of Portland, Oregon, at $73,000, to be finished within ten months. The vessel will be stationed at San Francisco.

The Nebraska legislature has organized. The Populist's take control of the House and the Democrats and free-silver Republicans combine in the Senate.

The gloomy, cloudy weather is approaching and snow is expected and plenty of it almost any time.

It is rumored that J. B. Overton has purchased the box factory of this city and will remove it to Truckee. It will not, however, disturb the electric light plant.

The flume which runs down Clear Creek canyon will not be in operation after this year.

Madame Modjeska, the actress, is in San Francisco.

Another fenderless street car killed a child in San Francisco last Wednesday.
